1. All men who were to have begun their basic military service on 1 July 1951 were not called on that date, but are to be called on 1 October 1951. This applies to those who were drafted in the spring of 1951 (the classes of 1929-1931).
2. Men up to the age of 45 who are subject to military service were ordered to appear before their local District National Committees by the end of July 1951 in order to have their military documents verified.
3. All reserve officers and NCOs up to 45 years of age must report in person to the military section of their local District National Committee, where they will have to pass political examinations. At the same time, size of uniforms and shoes will be recorded for each reservist.
